

PROGRAMME

Collection Development in Academic Libraries: Sixth Seminar
The Studio, Birmingham
Wednesday 18th May 2016

Negotiating the Future: Collection Development through working with others
#NAGcd6

10.00-10.30	Registration & refreshments
10.30-10.40	Welcome/Introduction to NAG	Maria Allan NAG Committee Member	@MariaAllan5
10.40-11.00	Negotiation skills: approaches to negotiation, how to empower staff and the use of analytics	Stuart Dempster Head of Information Resources Imperial University	@StuDempster
11.00-11.20	E-Textbooks and negotiations	Tif Dickinson E-textbook Services Coordinator Plymouth University	@tifdickinson
11.20-11.40	Tea/Coffee Break
11.40-12.10	Break out session 1: Negotiation Skills	Maria Allan & Gavin Philips NAG Committee Members	@MariaAllan5 @gavinjphillips
12.10-12.40	Patron-Driven Acquisitions: rentals Vs purchasing	Jackie Harrison University of Hertfordshire
12.40-13.45	Lunch & networking
13.45-14.05	Evidence-based Acquisitions – The vendor’s perspective	Sarah Logan & Nathan Turner Cambridge University Press
14.05-14.25	The UCL experience of evidence-based acquisitions for ebooks	Anna Sansome University College London
14.25-14.50	Break out session 2: Evidence-based Acquisitions	Maria Allan & Gavin Philips NAG Committee Members	@MariaAllan5 @gavinjphillips
14.50-15.00	Break
15.00-15.30	Use Them or Lose Them! How Recent Reforms To Copyright Law Can Facilitate Collection development and Access	Laurence Bebbington Deputy Librarian and Head of Library Services The University of Aberdeen	@bebbinlw
15.30-16.00	Panel Q&A session and close	Speakers & NAG Committee

NAG Committee Members/Seminar organisers:

Maria Allan, Acquisitions Services Manager, King’s College London
maria.allan@kcl.ac.uk

Annette Linton, Bibliographic and User Services Librarian, Canterbury Christ Church University
annette.linton@canterbury.ac.uk

Gavin Phillips, Principal Library Assistant: Acquisitions & Metadata, Imperial University
g.phillips@imperial.ac.uk