

NAG Conference 2016 - Public and Academic Libraries – Learning and Working in Partnership			Website/print Version
Wednesday 14th September 2016
Time	Session	Presenter
10:00-11.30	Registration + NAG servicing standards launch Icebreaker scavenger hunt
11.30-12:00	Welcome address: "Rebuilding the Mackintosh Library collections: generous gifts, tricky insurance negotiations and lots of social media"	Alison Stevenson, Glasgow School of Art
12.00-12:15	Introduction to Committee
12.15-13.00	Lunch
13.00-13.30	Paper 1 - Satisfying the unpredictable - Your Books More Books resourcing for dissertations (NAG Award Winners 2015)	Dorothy Atherton & Helen Adey, Nottingham Trent University
13.30-14.00	Paper 2 – "Empowering users about their rights to use creative works"	Aude Charillon, Newcastle Libraries
14.00-14:30	Paper 3 - #whatsYourStory: Leeds library promotion	Alison Millar, Leeds Library and Information Service
14:30-15:00	Paper 4 - Access to Research: a review of market research into the use of scientific journals in public libraries	Jonathan Griffin, Publishers Licensing Society
15:00-15:45	Tea and Networking/Looking at displays
15.45-16:15	Paper 5 - E-content and availability	Emma House, Publishers Association
16.15-17.15	Workshops
W1	Scottish HE: Learning & Working in Partnership with DRM Free E-books	Wendy Walker and Anna Andrzejewska, Glasgow University
W2	Copyright – The Card Game	Chris Morrison, University of Kent
W3	The Lancashire Reading Journey – Developing and implementing an in-house summer reading initiative across a public library service.	Jill Connolly, Lancashire Libraries
W4	Communicate to collaborate	Suzanne Wheatley, Sue Hill
18.30-18.45	First Time Delegates Reception	Bucks fizz and orange juice
18:45-19.15	Conference Reception
19.15	Conference Dinner & NAG award
21.00	After dinner entertainment

Thursday 15th September 2016
Time	Session	Presenter
9.00-9.15	Tea/coffee for day delegates
9.15-9.45	NAG AGM 2016	Gavin, Angela, Regina and Jaqui
9.45-10.45	Workshops repeated
W1	Scottish HE: Learning & Working in Partnership with DRM Free E-books	Wendy Walker and Anna Andrzejewska, Glasgow University
W2	Copyright – The Card Game	Chris Morrison, University of Kent
W3	The Lancashire Reading Journey – Developing and implementing an in-house summer reading initiative across a public library service.	Jill Connolly, Lancashire Libraries
W4	Communicate to collaborate	Suzanne Wheatley, Sue Hill
10.45-11.15	Tea and Networking/Looking at displays
11.15-11.45	Paper 6 – Student Panel	Students from Glasgow University
11.45-12.15	Paper 7 – Managing Open Access APC Funds and Publisher Deals: A Case Study of Three Scottish Universities	Dominic Tate, Edinburgh University Library
12.15-13.00	Lunch
13.00-13.30	Paper 8 - Library service delivery: “Independence and Opportunity”	Paul Howarth, Suffolk Libraries
13.30-14.00	Paper 9 – Library Service Delivery –a joint library service with three stakeholders	Greg Bennett, The Forum Southend-on-Sea
14.00-14.15	Water/juice
14.15-14.45	Paper 10 – Library service delivery Carillion Services “Different delivery methods of public library services and sharing best practices”	Fiona Tarn, Carillion Services
14:45-15:00	Q&A	Paul, Greg and Fiona
15.00-15.30	Paper 11 - Journal acquisition at the University of East London: meeting rising costs and rising expectations.	Thomas Shaw, University of East London
15.30-15.45	Closing remarks, summary and close of conference 2016
	Additional event:
16.15-17.15	Tours of: Glasgow Women’s Library OR Whittaker Library & National Piping Centre	Limited places, pre-booking is essential, please email nag.office@nag.org.uk

The Conference organisers, Neill Roberts, Alison Millar, Joanne Kettleby and Gavin Phillips, will be pleased to answer any questions regarding the programme. They can be contacted at nag.conference@nag.org.uk

For queries about practical arrangements, please contact the Admin team at nag.office@nag.org.uk

Details above are subject to change

All refreshments will be served in the Exhibitor area.