

Collection Development for Academic Libraries: Eighth Seminar

The Studio, Birmingham, Wednesday 23rd May 2018

Valuing our Collections

#NAGcd8

10.00-10.30	Registration & refreshments
10.30-10.40	Welcome/Introduction to NAG	Maria Allan NAG Committee Member	@MariaAllan5
10.40-11.10	Paper 1: Collections evaluation at the University of Southampton: space, stock and strategy	Kerry Hadaway & Jonathan Chipp University of Southampton
11.10-11.40	Paper 2: Assessing significance: evaluating collections at LSE Library	Kevin Wilson & Anna Towlson London School of Economics	@liaisonkevin
11.40-12.00	Tea/Coffee Break
12.00-12.30	Paper 3: Collection Development in a federal world – Senate House Library as a case study	Nick Barratt Senate House Library, University of London	@senatehouselib
12.30-13.00	Paper 4: Survey of pedagogical resources	Linda Bennett & Annika Bennett Gold Leaf	@goldleaf2001
13.00-14.00	Lunch & networking
14.00-14.05	Welcome back and prize draw	Maria Allan NAG Committee Member	@MariaAllan5
14.05-14.35	Paper 5: White Rose Libraries: collaborative collection analysis and beyond	Gary Ward University of Sheffield Kate Petherbridge White Rose Libraries
14.35-15.05	Paper 6: We were hardcore: The only way is reference	Rachel Bramley University of Sussex	@rachelabramley
15.05-15.20	Tea/Coffee Break
15.20-15.50	Paper 7: From strength to strength: defining and building areas of collection strength at King's College London	Katie Sambrook & John Wilby King's College London
15.50-16.00	Close	Maria Allan NAG Committee Member	@MariaAllan5

NAG Seminar organisers:

Maria Allan, Acquisitions Services Manager, King's College London
maria.allan@kcl.ac.uk

Ewa Cepuchowicz, Digital Library Manager, University of East London
e.cepuchowicz@uel.ac.uk